ORDER:

1. The Commissioner of Ayush vide Ir.3rd read above has stated that Dr. K.Annapurna Devi has represented that her husband Dr. T.V.G.Krishna Swamy expired while in service as Medical Officer (Homoeo), GHD, Pregnapur, Medak District on 01-07-2010 leaving behind herself and two daughters. As such, while enclosing the requisite certificates, she has requested for her appointment on compassionate grounds in the post of Medical Officer (Homoeo) on the basis of her qualifications. Further, Dr.K.Annapurna Devi has submitted that she possessed BHMS Degree which makes her eligible for appointment to the post of Medical Officer (Homoeo).

2. In this regard, the Commissioner of AYUSH, has stated that as per the instructions contained in the Govt. Cir. Memo dt.12-8-2003, appointment under the scheme of compassionate grounds can be made to the post of Junior Assistant or for any other category of posts whose pay is equal or less than that of Junior Assistant. Finally, the Commissioner of AYUSH, has requested the Govt. to relax Rules with a view to provide immediate relief to the spouse of the deceased Government employee Dr. K.Annapurna Devi, for her appointment as Medical Officer (Homoeo) under the scheme of compassionate appointment.

3. Dr. K.Annapurna Devi vide representation 6th read above, has further stated that her Husband Dr.T.V.G.Krishna Swamy, Medical Officer, Pragnapur, Medak Dist. has worked without a residential facility in his work place away from his family members for the sake of providing good education for their children. He was not transferred to City Zone, even though he worked for more than five years in Tribal and rural areas i.e., Kondanagula, Mahaboobnager District Donthi, and Shivampet Medak District in areas that did not have potable drinking water and sanitation facilities which contributed to his illness and finally his death. The diagnosis of the doctors showed that her husband suffered from Kidney Failure, Ischemic Heart Disease, Jaundice with Multi-Organ dysfunction to which he finally succumbed on 01-07-2010. she requested the Government to consider her case sympathetically and appoint her as Medical Officer (Homoeo) on compassionate grounds.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter have observed that Dr.K.Annapurna Devi has applied for appointment on compassionate grounds within the prescribed time of one year. Although, she has crossed forty five years of age, she deserved to be appointed as Medical Officer as she and her children have no other source of livelihood and decided to appoint her as Medical Officer (Homoeo) as she is educationally qualified to hold the post, on compassionate grounds in relaxation of rules relating to maximum age limit.
